Terms & Conditions of Deposit

This deposit is a 90-day notice account. This means that you can save and earn some interest on your savings, but you cannot access your funds until you give 90-days written notice and this has expired. There is no end date or term on this deposit.

- This account cannot be attached to a loan as collateral.
- Savings in this account are not covered by life savings protection insurance. This insurance is for share accounts only.
- Members can save a maximum of €10,000 in this account. This can be a lump sum, a weekly or monthly instalment or a combination of both.
- You may stop and start making instalment payments at any time.
- Current interest is 0.80% (AER 0.80%).
- This rate is variable and may increase or decrease in line with the markets. Rates will be reviewed annually in October following the payment of interest at the end of September.
- Interest is paid annually on the last working day of September.
- DIRT will be deducted at the prevailing rate, unless you have an exemption and have completed form DE1, available at the counter and at www.revenue.ie
- Interest may be withdrawn each year or left in the deposit account to compound.
- The Board reserves the right to withdraw this product for new entrants at any time.
- On giving 90-day written notice, the funds in this account can be:
  - ▶ Fully withdrawn and the account closed
  - ▶ Partially withdrawn
  - ▶ Transferred to another term deposit account where the savings limit allows or
  - ▶ Transferred to your shares or on-demand deposit account. This will only be permitted where the total balance would be below the prevailing caps on those accounts.
  - ▶ Any interest owed on this account after the deposit has matured will be paid into the account on the last working day of September
